

What you don't know about doing business in Asia could fill a book. This guy could write it.

Come join us for a discussion with Dr. James Chan to expand your understanding of the challenges in successfully exporting to China and other Asian countries.

James will share insights drawn from of 35 years of hands-on experience with 100 U.S. manufacturers and service firms. He will discuss your potential customers' thinking and behavior, current prospects, recurring problems and practical solutions for dealing with them. Dr. Chan's "C.H.I.N.A. Formula" provides a new marketing mindset for success in penetrating not only the Mainland China market, but also Hong Kong, Taiwan, Singapore and other ASEAN markets.
