HIS EXCELLENCY MAJID AL SUWAIDI

Consul General
United Arab Emirates

Majid Al Suwaidi is the Consul General of the United Arab Emirates (UAE) in New York, appointed in September 2015. Through the Paris climate change conference (COP21), Majid served as lead Climate Change Negotiator for the UAE, as well as its United Nations (UN) lead on energy, sustainable development, and finance. Majid has extensive experience in international negotiations and led the UAE Mission to the UN's engagement in matters covering a wide range of issues relating to economic growth and development.

From 2012 until 2015, Majid was the Climate Change and Natural Resources Manager at the Directorate of Energy and Climate Change for the UAE Ministry of Foreign Affairs. During his time there, he covered portfolios that included the United Nations Framework Convention Climate Change (UNFCCC), the Sustainable Development Goals, Clean Energy Ministerial, UN Habitat, aviation, and technology. He was also a lead negotiator at the Rio +20 summit.

Majid previously worked as a reservoir geologist in the Abu Dhabi National Oil Company (ADNOC). He has almost 10 years of experience in the oil and gas sector, in all stages from exploration to development. Majid also worked as a research and teaching assistant, carrying out several seasons of academic field research. An ADNOC Scholar, he received his undergraduate degree from Brunel University in the UK and graduate MSc degree from Simon Fraser University in British Columbia.

NEW PANELISTS TO BE ANNOUNCED SOON!
