

Trade Compliance and Advocacy

Advocacy services can leverage the weight of the federal government to help in winning contracts and ensure a level playing field when competing abroad. The U.S. Department of Commerce also recognizes that it is imperative that U.S. companies have a means to address trade problems, trader barriers and unfair practices affecting competition to compete. Advocacy and Trade Compliance services are available to U.S. exporters to assist on these fronts.

The Advocacy Center

US Department of Commerce
14th Street & Constitution Avenue, NW, Rm. 3814-A
Washington, DC 20230-0001
(202) 482-3896
(202) 482-3508 Fax
www.export.gov/advocacy/

Trade Compliance Center

Market Access and Compliance/ITA
U.S. Department of Commerce
14th Street and Constitution Avenue, NW
Washington, DC 20230-0001
(202) 482-1191
(202) 482-6097 Fax
tcc.export.gov