Why Poland & the Czech Republic? Why Now?
Since joining the European Union in 2004, Poland & the Czech Republic have worked to develop their economies and living standards to be on par with advanced countries in the EU. To this end, they continue to invest significant resources in the development of infrastructure, including intelligent transportation systems, smart governance, smart grids, energy efficiency and green buildings.

WEBINAR
The Smart Cities Ecosystem in Poland & the Czech Republic
June 1st, 2017; 10:00am EST
Venue: Your Computer & Phone

WHO SHOULD PARTICIPATE?
Hi-tech equipment, platforms, and technology suppliers; particularly technologies that are involved within smart mobility, smart governance, smart buildings and smart living

AGENDA
• Introduction
• Overview of the Smart Cities sector within Europe
• Market overviews of Poland & the Czech Republic from CS Poland & CS Czech Republic
• Business experiences from U.S. company in the region
• Information & Invitation to the Smart Cities Trade Mission to Poland & the Czech Republic

WHAT CAN YOU GAIN FROM THIS WEBINAR?
• Market overview of Smart Cities Market
• Information on key opportunities
• Overview of Smart Cities Trade Mission to Poland & the Czech Republic on September 10-15, 2017

A limited number of spaces are available; registration fee is $35. To apply, please visit:
Webinar Registration: Smart Cities Trade Mission to Poland & the Czech Republic

For questions about the Sept. 10-15 Poland & Czech Republic Trade Mission, please contact:
Kent Campbell
DOC - Washington, DC
202-482-7426
Kent.Campbell@trade.gov

Kenneth Duckworth
CS Warsaw - Sr. Commercial Officer
+48 22 625 4374
Kenneth.Duckworth@trade.gov

Helen Peterson
CS Prague - Commercial Counselor
+420 257 022 434
Helen.Peterson@trade.gov