

2018 U.S. – CENTRAL CHINA BUSINESS SUMMIT

Zhengzhou JW Marriot April 13th, 2018

The U.S. Commercial Service in Wuhan in partnership with Henan Provincial Committee of Promoting International Trade (Henan CCPIT) is organizing the 3rd U.S. – Central China Business Summit in Zhengzhou, Henan province. The summit will bring provincial government entities and key players from four provinces in Central China to brief U.S. companies on market trends in these provinces and learn about project opportunities in Central China. This event will create a platform for U.S. companies' introductions to key decision makers in three sectors: Environmental Protection, Healthcare, and Cold Chain.

Why Central China? Booming Economic region: GDP growth has exceeded the national average over the past five years, and in 2017 Hubei province and Henan province will exceed 8%.

- Central China has a GDP equal to Brazil and a population of nearly 300 million.
- Central government has recently stipulated stimulus policy on this regional economy.
- A region largely untapped by foreign companies

The summit will bring your company an unprecedented opportunity to:

- Network with provincial government officials from four provinces; and
- Participate in pre-arranged matchmaking sessions with potential buyers and partners (Option B).

The roundtables with provincial government officials will feature presentations focusing on:

ENVIRONMENTAL PROTECTION

- Consulting and Design service
- Wastewater treatment
- Existing and upcoming projects
- Key end users and distributors

HEALTHCARE

- Advanced diagnosis tech.
- Chronic disease management
- Clinical progress on esophageal cancer and lung cancer

COLD CHAIN

- Cold storage infrastructure design and consulting
- Pre-cooling technologies and solutions
- Low-temp control at last-mile logistics

REGISTRATION AND OTHER INFORMATION:

*Registration fee:

Option A: USD1, 200 per company for MORNING session (incl. banquet lunch)
