

SelectUSA China Road Show

March 19-29, 2018

*Harbin, Hohhot, Wuhan,
Ningbo, Guiyang, and Guangzhou*

Did you know that China is the third fastest growing source of FDI in the United States? Overall, China is the 10th largest source of foreign direct investment to the United States, with a total value of $73.4 billion supporting 76,700 jobs in 2016 (including FDI from Hong Kong). Check out the China factsheet for more information. Additionally, SelectUSA's visual data tool, SelectUSA Stats, is available for in-depth, interactive information on FDI from China and around the world.

The SelectUSA China Road Show returns March 19-29, 2018 to six first and second-tier cities: Harbin (3/19), Hohhot (3/21), Wuhan (3/23), Ningbo (3/26), Guiyang (3/28) and Guangzhou (3/29). The China Road Show will lead U.S. economic development organizations (EDOs) and service providers through half-day seminars, networking activities and matchmaking sessions with Chinese business investors.

A briefing webinar for U.S. EDOs and service providers seeking more information about the Road Show will be held on Thursday, January 18, 2017. The estimated participation fee for the roadshow's six-city stop is $4,500 per EDO. This fee does not include costs associated with hotel room stay, transportation or daily meals. The registration deadline for the roadshow is Monday, February 12, 2018.
